

Endbanding Intensive Workshop

School for Bookbinding Arts at Cat Tail Run Hand Bookbinding

Instructor Susan McCabe is shown doing what she does to endbands: tying one on, stabbing, and injecting.

August 2, 2019 (Friday) $195

Students will learn to make a variety of styles of wrapped-core endbands, including cloth-wrapped and sewn (or "worked") endbanding. The workshop also includes a session on the repair of damaged endbands (useful for book restoration work) and an overview of historical and stylistic endbanding techniques.

*Prerequisite: Either Introduction to Book Restoration OR New Cloth Binding Construction
